

You're invited to attend a Youth Concert by the Oklahoma City Philharmonic!

Fall 2011

Dear Principals and Teachers,

We are pleased you attended our Youth Concerts last year, and because of that, I would like to offer you the first opportunity to sign your school up again this year. Youth Concerts are presented by the Oklahoma City Philharmonic at the Civic Center Music Hall in downtown OKC. These 45-minute, school-day concerts highlight the sights and sounds of the symphony orchestra. Under the direction of guest conductor Matthew Troy, the Philharmonic will perform excerpts of classical standards as well as more popular. This is an excellent opportunity to expose your students to the arts!!

These non-ticketed Youth Concerts are offered FREE of charge and suggested for grades 3, 4 and 5, as well as beginning orchestra and band students throughout Oklahoma (please do not bring infants to the concerts). In addition to admittance to the concert, teachers who register to participate will receive concert preparation materials for their students, including program notes and a study CD.

There is a plaza area located on the east side of the Civic Center that is available for students to eat a sacked lunch. However, in case of rain, students will have to eat on the bus. Food is not allowed inside the theatre.

Space for these concerts will be reserved on a first come, first serve basis. To register for the concert, you have four options. The first option is an online registration at www.okcphilharmonic.org/schools, and information can be found under "Youth Concerts." The other options would be to complete the contact information below, select an available concert and a second choice, and return to the Philharmonic by mail, email or fax.
